

Write into the Day: Prompt for “This I Believe”

Rules for Writing:

First: Write for the whole time.

Second: Don’t worry about making sense or making sure what you write is perfectly edited.

Third: Be honest and be specific.

Look back at the list making we did last week (non-negotiable ways to spend time, relationships, possessions, hopes, fears, pet peeves, values).

What are you going to write about for your “This I Believe”? What is your topic? What might be your belief? What story or stories can you use to illustrate your belief?
