

We are going to create a Quicklist to help you with your future writing assignments. This will be simple and painless.

You are allowed to add and change your lists as you think about more ideas.

You may choose to write by hand, type, use speech-to-text, or have someone scribe for you. If you struggle with spelling a word, say it out loud, and I will write it in our word bank on the board.

In your notebook or Google Doc, number from 1 to 10.

1 & 2: Write down a food that you enjoy eating.

3 & 4: Write something you like to do in your free time.

5 & 6: Write something that annoys you.

7 & 8: Write something that makes you smile.

9 & 10: Write something you look forward to doing.
