

Research Breakdown

Collect research for your argumentative topic. When you have a quote that you might add into your essay, include them here in the breakdown.

Say • What is the quote you pulled from the website? • What website is it from? (include the URL)	Mean • What does the author mean? • How can this information be interpreted? • What can be inferred?	Matter • Why does this information matter? • Why is it important? • How does this quote help prove your point?