

Name _____

Date _____

Choose a quote and write it in the Say box. Next, tell what you think the author meant by this quote in the Mean box. Use the Matter box to explain why this quote is important.

Quots:

1. The difference between try and triumph is a little umph. - Marvin Phillips
2. Nothing is impossible, the word itself says I'm possible - Audrey Hepburn
3. The best way to predict the future is to create it. - Abraham Lincoln

| SAYWhat does the text say?Direct quote, paraphrase,or summary | MEANWhat does this information mean?Make an inference. Interpret and “readbetween the lines.” <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• What does the author mean?</li><li>• How can the information be interpreted?</li><li>• What can be inferred?</li><li>• What point is the author making?</li></ul> | MATTERWhy does it matter?So what? What are the implications and/orpossible outcomes? <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Why does this information matter?</li><li>• Why is this important or significant?</li><li>• What are the implications or consequences ofthe information?</li><li>• How does this connect to other ideas?</li></ul> |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |