

Name _____

Hour _____

Paragraph of the Week Writing 11

Directions: Your writing topic is below. Throughout this week, you are going to use this topic to write a well organized paragraph.

Each night you must complete the following:

Monday/Tuesday: Read the topic and brainstorm ideas

Wednesday: Write the first draft.

Thursday: Revise and edit your draft.

Friday: Write a final draft. When arriving at class: BRAINSTORMING, ROUGH, AND FINAL DRAFT MUST BE STAPLED TO THIS SHEET AND TURNED INTO YOUR CLASS DRAWER.

Topic: Explain how social media affects relationships and friendships among teenagers. What are the positive and negative effects of social media on communication?

Scoring Guide:

Name: _____ Date: _____

Exceeds
Meets
Does Not Meet

Opinion Paragraph Rubric	Does Not Meet Expectations	Meets Expectations	Exceeds Expectations
Ideas	Some ideas are related to the topic. Few supporting details are given.	ALL ideas are related to the topic. Good supporting details are included.	ALL ideas are related to the topic. Strong and specific supporting details are included.
Organization	Is missing a topic sentence or conclusion sentence. Some ideas are not in logical order.	Has a topic sentence and conclusion sentence. Ideas are in a logical order.	The topic sentence and conclusion sentence are strong. Ideas are in logical order.
Style	Voice and tone are not evident. Uses only simple words. Simple sentences are used.	Voice and tone is used. Some strong word choice. Some variety in sentences.	Voice and tone are strong. Strong word choice. A variety of sentences are used.
Conventions	Many errors in spelling, punctuation, or subject-verb agreement. Errors interfere with meaning.	Few errors in spelling, punctuation, or subject-verb agreement. Errors do not interfere with meaning.	Correct usage of spelling, punctuation and subject-verb agreement. Errors do not interfere with meaning.

Brainstorming and Rough Draft are attached:

/3

Total:

/15