

The Crucible - Act 2: Say, Mean, Matter

Name: _____

Now that you know how to use the Say-Mean-Matter strategy to help you question a text, search for deeper meanings, and make connections with the text, it's your turn to apply this strategy to the rest of Act 2. Use the sentence stems in the Table 1 to complete Table 2 with at least three examples from the reading.

TABLE 1:

SAY What does the text say? Direct quote, paraphrase, or summary that INCLUDES A PAGE NUMBER.	MEAN What does this information mean? Make an inference. Interpret and "read between the lines." - What does the author mean? - How can the information be interpreted? - What can be inferred? - What point is the author making?	MATTER Why does it matter? So what? What are the implications and/or possible outcomes? - Why does this matter? - Why is this important or significant? - What are the implications or consequences of the information? - How does this connect to other ideas?
- On page ____, John/Elizabeth states.... - On page ____, he/she claims/argues/insists ... - On page ____, X points out ...	- This quote means/emphasizes/shows ... - This suggests/implies ... - In other words, X believes ... - Basically, X is saying ... - X's point is that ...	- As a result, ... - This likely means..... - In my experience, ... - This connects/relates to ... - Knowing this will ...

TABLE 2:

SAY	MEAN	MATTER